COVID-19 GN Update

Premier's update

Good afternoon. Originally this was meant to be a standard update, but as you know, we now have a confirmed case of COVID-19 in Sanikiluaq. This is Nunavut's first confirmed case.

On behalf of the Government of Nunavut, I'm sending best wishes to the patient, their family and the whole community. You're in our thoughts and we are here to help.

Nunavut now has one confirmed case of COVID-19. The total number of persons followed to date is 3803. There are 583 persons currently being followed.

Dr. Patterson will speak shortly about what we know so far and next steps in tracing and containing the spread of the virus.

Nunavummiut, please remember, a confirmed case in the community is not a reason to panic. Continue to practice social and physical distancing, wash your hands, and stay home if you are feeling unwell. Please limit your contact with others.

This is not the time for blame or shame. Please do not spread rumours or misinformation. They serve no purpose and help absolutely no one.

Thanks to you all your continued dedication to following our public health measures. To everyone doing their part, keep it up!

As we head into the dark season and staying inside more often, we need to stay more focused and attentive than ever.

Stay well. Stay healthy. Stay safe. Remember - Your actions. Everyone's Health.

Chief Public Health Officer update

Good afternoon,

Today we received confirmatory results of a positive case of COVID-19 in Sanikiluaq.

The individual and their family are isolated. We have initiated contact tracing in the community and our rapid response team is on standby to help manage the situation should it become necessary

Effective as of noon today, all travel to and from the Belcher Islands, including the Hamlet of Sanikiluaq by any means is prohibited.

There are exceptions for emergency medical travel, critical entry for medical response, flight emergencies, and cargo. Hunters may also leave the community but may not travel to any other community or populated area outside the Belcher Islands.

It is also advised that hunters leaving the community closely monitor for symptoms and return home if any develop.

In addition, all for profit and not-for profit business in Sanikiluaq must close, with the exception of Grocery stores; Fuel and motor vehicle service stations; the Canada Post corporation; Financial Institutions. Restaurants open for take-out service may remain open under strict rules including, all customers must remain 2 metres apart at all times and no more than 10 people are permitted to line up for service at one time.

In addition, all schools, including Nunavut Arctic College, federal, territorial, and municipal government offices must close to all but essential work.

All gatherings are restricted to five people and there shall be no gatherings in homes.

Currently, the common travel areas between the NWT and Churchill, Manitoba are still open for travel from all other communities.

I want to reassure Nunavummiut that we are responding quickly to this case and to remind them that now is a time for support, kindness and understanding.

Thank you.

As part of the Government of Nunavut's (GN) effort to protect Nunavummiut against the risk of COVID-19, GN Departments are implementing the following:

Department of Health Services

Unless it is an emergency, we are asking that people in Sanikiluaq call the health centre first and get direction. Anyone with questions about COVID-19 are asked to call the hotline at 1-888-975-8601.
